

Junior Development

Effective June 16, 2017, novice Junior B boxers aged 13-14 with less than 10 bouts have the option to compete in “Junior Development” bouts in which FUNBox rules apply. Once a Junior B boxer has 10 or more bouts they must compete under normal Junior B Rules.

Rules:

- A Junior Development boxer cannot have more than 9 fights.
- Coaches are not permitted to coach from the corners.
- Competitive heavy blows are discouraged. Both the referees and coaches have a responsibility to discourage heavy blows.
- Bouts will not be judged. Both boxers will be declared winners both in the ring and in their boxing Passports.
- The referee will control the bout from inside the ring and will provide instruction to the athletes.
- Junior Development bouts can be part of any show or tournament but these bouts should take place at the beginning of the show, prior to judged bouts.
- The Maximum weight difference allowance is 3kg
- The Maximum number of bouts difference is 10.
- The Maximum age difference is 12 months.
